OS: Windows 11

On the login page, the icons representing the username and password fields are not consistently displayed. This results in an inconsistent user interface

Steps to reproduce:

1. Open URL in Chrome browser
2. Go to login form and verify if the icons representing the Username and Password are displayed next to the input fields.

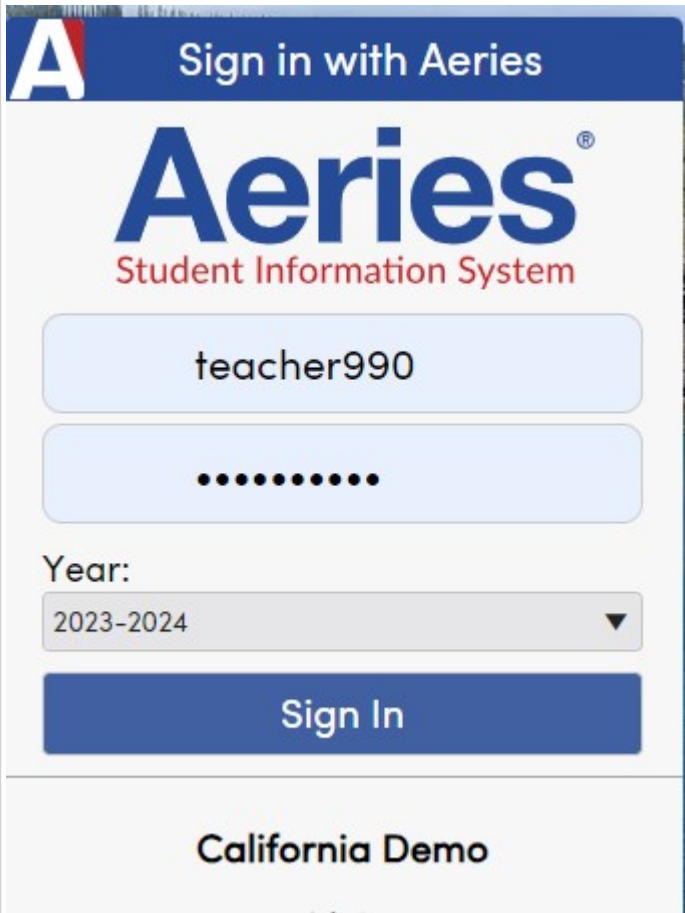

Expected results:

Icons for both the username and password fields should be consistently displayed next to the respective input fields.

Actual results:

Icons representing the Username and Password fields are intermittently missing from the login form.
